Subject:conspiracy virus, prison planet and the Kovid Killah! v2

Caro Snr Presidente,

I'm afraid that is all the Portuguese you're gonna' get outta' me.

However, let me be the umpteenth person to compliment your office on its internet accessibility.

I note that you are about to meet with the eager member of the financially induced, alimentary tract inserted, corporate elbows club, your esteemed primo ministerio, Snr Costa.

Permit me to recap on his Covid involvement, so far.

Some weeks ago he was lamenting publicly that his unpaid/underpaid(?) medicos were cowards for refusing to enter covid-contaminated old-peoples' homes.

I offered my services.

I am seventy four years old, have high blood pressure and am overweight.

Mildly high risk would be a euphemism for describing my survival chances in an environment like that.

They did not know that at the time, but somehow, between the Gabinete's response and all, no acceptance of my services was forthcoming.

Now, failing your awareness of my internet presence, for which I suggest you search on lescrooge.org, you will discover that I have a fair to middling knowledge of what causes our body metabolisms to fail.

This is based on the assimilation of clinically obtained data from my 35,000+ patients' eyes, gathered over fourteen years.

So, it is with some gravitas that I can suggest that you instruct your headless chicken gov to change its crisis management to one that won't lead it to the abyss.

However, if this is your secret plan all along, then it is working well and I commend the lot of you.

Then again, if that is not the case then listen up.

Your guv, like all the other guvs are trying to control a tiger by the tail.
That obviously cannot possibly succeed.
Simply because you have all failed to recognise the tiger.
That tiger is the 50% of the fechin, pig-headed, selfish, inconsiderate/bullet-proof eejits/moroons/ who constitute your population. not to mention all the foreigners who are of the same persuasion.

You are wasting your breath, warning them of the dire consequences of failing to wear masks in the street.

It's the same as bringing in legislation to stop people using mobiles while driving/

You might as well attempt to command the tides for all the effect it has.

It is Z-I-P!!!

What will work is the Kovid Killah! v2 strategy (attached), already proven for 25 years by a handful of medicos in the youess ofhay, along with an ongoing course of cheap minerals and vitamins.

I am getting cheesed-off informing persons who could do something constructive about saving unnecessary covid induced deaths and seeing nothing happening.

It appears almost like the whole thing is a fechin conspiracy to enslave the whole planet.

It does not appear. IT IS A FUCKING FACT.

Now, it appears that you had a near death experience captured on TV. If that was pure theatre. then it was pure magic.

If it was real, then you know that our time here is short and priceless.

So, maybe you understand that playing with everyone's mortality is about as dirty as one can get.

All I know is that I don't have to live with that shit.

You might, and that is your problem.

Tell your PM to think about his people instead of himself.

The following I have sent to Costa and several other persons with authority.

STARTS HERE

Apos for earlier!

Ignore the prisonplanet/ alex jones references.

It's been 10-15 years, at least. since I checked it out.

Today, Jones is an ultra-right wing, gun supporter for juveniles, and a Trump loving maniac with weight problems along with ensuing diabetes.

OR he is parodying the GOP for the benefit of hip Democrats.

We'll probably never know.

Anyhoo, with a little bit of ill health, or an unseemly blast of Conspiracy virus - he won't be around for long.

Subject:covid 19 - better known as the conspiracy virus

From:louis <louis@lescrooge.org>

To:ec-president-vdl@ec.europa.eu

Dear Madame Presidente

Boy, is your EU in a mess so - LISTEN UP!

However, before I commence berating your pandemic mismanagement, first I must commend you on your transparent accessibility.

If only other presidentes/ prime ministers were so acessible.

As you might imagine from my comments so far I am of the confirmed opinion that there are enough well-placed persons who are party to this conspiracy virus and want to keep it that way.

So, either you are part of the select group of recipients of the financially induced, alimentary tract implanted, solid gold, corporate elbow, or you are not.

You are busy dealing with Bobo the UK clown. so I'll be as brief as I can.

I am not sure you have any real idea what this covid conspiracy is doing to your EU population.

Apart from killing them, your 'control' methods are debillitating businesses, isolating families, in fact doing as good a job as ICE is doing on the Mexican border.

Remember the movie TOTAL RECALL - if not then watch it.

And check out the <https://www.prisonplanet.com/> and <http://tv.infowars.com/> websites.

It is run by a motormouthed maniac by the name of Alex Jones.

A lot of what he claims is either the truth, or close to it.

But he is also a maniac.

It might be disconcerting for you to see all your countries leaders having no idea what they are doing to control an out-of-control monster pandemic, or it might not.

It's not all their fault.

They are being misguided by self-interested forces in the guise of the CDC and the WHO, both of which are the glove puppets of Big PHARM, BIG MED & 'PHYLANTHROPIC' BIG BILL GATES

I have been tracking 'fake nooz' - the stuff that the donald and his gang of liars and thieves don't want people thinking about, or even knowing.

Please study the links thoroughly as well as the attachments.

you will learn a lot about surviving this conspiracy virus, keeping your countries open and their economies functioning if you pay attention and forget what disinformation the CDC and WHO are filling your heads with.

In one of the links you will hear testimony from Dr Brownstein, in which he is threatened with having his med licence revoked by the CDC if he does not withdraw his claims that his treatment can cure/stop/kill covid.

Because the CDC know there is no cure - confident they are not.

Funny old country the youessofhay - land of the free - I believe they claim.

I have also condensed the H202 treatment into to a simple, step-by-step procedure for the non-medically trained/ hygiene unaware.

It is entitled Kovid killah!

How does that old saw go?

Cometh the hour, cometh the man or perhaps in your case it might be the reverse

So ask yourself if are you part of the old establishment line of maleable incompetents, liars and crooks masquerading as political saviours, the like of which I have observed for all of my fifty years of political awareness.

or are you indeed a watershed person with balls enough to do the right thing by your people and make The Bobo and The Donald look like the pathetic, lying clowns they don't need to aspire to be?

And if you are the latter are you going to explain to the business/retail/services world that it is not incumbent upon them to ensure the safety of those working or entering their premises, by them having to shell out for disinfectant, handwash, safety curtains, social distancing enforcers then limiting access to their premises.

This isn't Russia or China or even the youessofhay!

Instead it is incumbent on everyone to ensure that they are Covid free.

By using the COVID KILLAH procedure everyone can

And instead of having all of the above restrictions, all a premises needs are a couple of COVID KILLAH operatives spraying everyone entering and leaving the premises.

No masks, no screens, no social distancing.

You could even open your borders by applying the H2O2 nebulising treatment to anyone and everyone entering on every route.

A simple 30 second procedure which makes everyone safe.

But surely this must be illegal and kept secret BIKOZ BIG PHARMA, BIG MED AND BIG BILL GATES ain't gonna make no money on it.

In addition to this, all these producers making a fortune selling sterile handwash (like they use in the operating theatres - so it must work, right?) But hey - isn't that from where MRSA (the flesh-eating, antibiotic-resistant superbug) emanates?

If this handwash works how come it doesn't kill MRSA?

This is not a question you need to answer, as I shall tell you why.

*BIKOZ it only kills 99.99% of all known bacteria

It doesn't even kill 100% of known bacteria

Only two solutions kill ALL BACTERIA, known and unknown, in miniscule concentrations

0.5% solution of common household bleach

0.5% solution of HyDrogen peroxide

Bleach is much more stable and much cheaper

Both these kill ALL BACTERIA KNOWN AND UNKNOWN IN 60 SECONDS so does ethyl alcohol but it is too expensive and dangerous and makes people blind who drink it.

*However, I was advised by a restaurant owning friend this week, that the use of bleach and H2O2 were prohibited.

Funny old world, is it not?

Then opportunistic, covid product hustlers would fall by the wayside and possibly never vote for you.

Yet another dilemma. What to do?

(The ever-populist former presidente of my local council here was lobbied to reduce the heights of the speed bumps on the street passing the local kindergarten, because the plutocats couldn't drive at their chosen speed - otherwise they wouldn't vote for him next time.)

Hey! Democracy at work, yet again. However, I digress.

Or will you continue this conspiratorial, Covid charade so that all your rich and privileged chums become even more rich and privileged?

Don't tell me. I do not want to be privy to your innermost dilemmas. What to do, indeed?

I've written to various prime ministers offering my services, prepared to go where their cowardly doctors wouldn't.

Their silent responses have been overwhelming.

It would appear that the financially induced, alimentary tract inserted, solid gold corporate elbows appear to have been collectively inserted and doing a marvelous job.

The bottom line being; live in fear now then collect their pay-off later (Jam tomorrow - maybe)

Well you and they are the ones who have to live with yourselves.

It would restore a lot of confidence in democracy for you to do the right thing by your tax-paying public and their dependants.

The real bottom line here is the prospect of a bunch of Chinese/russian /youhessofhay vulture capitalists buying your parliament for one cent on the euro, or even less.

You don't believe me? This is a dangerous game of chicken in which you are all participating.

You are old enough to be able to read the runes.

Anyhoo, get in touch if you want more.

you got the tools to allow your people to stay informed and safe - so use them to the limit of your abilities

All the best

louis lescrooge

p.s. sign up to emails from www.mercola.com

The good doc always came across as a thin-skinned, hard-sell charlatan with expensive remedies.

However this covid crisis has seen him come good.

Like I have said earlier, but perhaps not here, this virus is fast becoming the conspiracy virus - twists and turns of BIG corporate, BIG gov and BIG bill gates complicity and deceit, unfolding from all the highest academic sources.

It's all gonna'come out in the wash. Holding back the tides will be a more alluring proposition.

However, if you are on the promise of an implanted corporate elbow, why should I cloud your allusion.

At then end, you are the one who has to live with you.

Have a happy life and a contented hereafter.

All the best

Louis lesCrooge

Just to establish that I am not making all this up. here is a string of corre from your PMs office.

Dear All in power,

If you want to carry on with this farrago then your worst case scenario (WCS) is your guv having no money, your tax paying populace having no work, no money, no food and dying either of starvation, or malnutrition, or the conspiracy virus, or a combination of all three.

Should this be what you and your guv are attempting, then permit me to congratulate you on your success, before it happens

*In fact, I heard yesterday that It looks like your conspiracy virus strategies are really working - so much so that Tavira escola secundaria is about to blow your strategies into outer space (hopefully - but reluctantly no)
It will probably shut down Tavira.*

I was in Santa Luzia, yesterday watching all the people walking maskless, like everything was just normal.

Now your strategies are not going to work with inconsiderate moroons like these on the loose.

Instructing the police to fine them is like trying to hold back the tides, or fine drivers for using mobile phones, or fining drivers for doing 100KPH in a ZONA 30.

Yet another exercise in utterly unenforcable policing.

The only way is to do what I told you a while ago and use the aqua oxigenado treatment - a copy of the latest, self-administering instructions I have attached (KOVID KILLAH! v2), along with more informative conspiracy links which you no doubt have not bothered following.

The longer you sit on this information, the worse it will look for your guv when someone decides to use it and broadcasts its success.

All the best for now

Assunto: Fwd: covid s19 = conspiracy virus/ relief/stop

Hi again, Mr Prime Minister,

I don't mean to gloat, but is your country in a mess, or is it on the edge and about to slip into the ABYSS?

From over hear it sure looks like you have no idea what you are doing.

Ordinarily, I would say it's not all your fault.

But ignoring sound, established, INEXPENSIVE medical procedures in preference to the WHO & CDC best case scenarios is what you get.

Making a cross with your fingers would be just as effective should Dracula come through the window.

Maybe I'm not getting it.

It is possible that your real motive is to wipe out the old, the infirm and the sick, to rid your country of non-productive leeches on its resources. Highly admirable. That was my first thought when the Chinese released it and I saw what it was doing.

However, let's just recap.

Your lack of feedback can 100% confirm that you and your cabinet are in that, less than select, group of recipients of the financially induced, alimentary tract implanted, solid gold, collective, corporate elbows. Notwithstanding the above, I trust you and your cabinet are as well as can be expected, on account of the fact that you have no idea what you are doing to control this madman-made out-of-control monster pandemic.

You have and still are all being misguided by self-interested forces in the guise of the CDC and the WHO, both of which are the political glove puppets of Big PHARM, BIG MED & 'PHYLANTHROPIC' BIG BILL GATES

You have a real idea what this covid conspiracy is doing to your business workings and to your population.

Apart from killing them, your 'control' methods are debillitating businesses, isolating families, in fact doing as good a job as ICE is doing on the Mexican border.

Remember the movie TOTAL RECALL v1 - if not then watch it. (I haven't seen v2.)

This planet is very, very slowly, turning into a prison planet for everyone controlled by BIG PHARMA AND PHYLANTHROPIC BIG BILL GATES.

I have been tracking 'fake nooz' - the stuff that the donald and his gang of liars and thieves don't want people thinking about, or even knowing about.

Please study the links thoroughly as well as the attachments - they have been updated.

You will learn a lot about surviving this conspiracy virus, keeping your country open and functioning if you pay attention and forget all the disinformation the CDC and WHO are spinning through your heads.

In one of the links you will hear testimony from Dr Brownstein in which he was threatened with having his med licence revoked by the CDC if he did not withdraw his claims that his treatment can cure/stop/kill covid. Because the CDC know there is no cure.

(How they are so confident about that I don't want to know).

However, what the CDC and the WHO appear to be doing is operating 'a boat race'.

For the uninitiated, 'a boat race' is a gambling term in which the result of an event is known before the event takes place.

But as Presidente Donald Duck has conveniently demonstrated, Covid can strike as many times as it likes.

Funny old country the youessofhay - land of the free - I believe they claim

*I have also condensed the H2O2 treatment into a simple, step-by-step procedure for the non-medically trained and the hygienically unaware. It is entitled Kovid killah!

How does that old saw go?

Cometh the hour, cometh the man! Who knows?

So, once more, ask yourself if you and your team are part of the old establishment line of maleable incompetents, liars and crooks, masquerading as political saviours, the like of which I have observed for all of my fifty years of political awareness.

Or are you and your team indeed watershed persons with balls enough to do the right thing by your people and make The Bobo and The Donald look like the pathetic, lying clowns they don't need to aspire to be?

This isn't Russia or China or even the youessofhay!

Instead it is incumbent on everyone to ensure that they are Covid free.

By using the Kovid killah! procedure, everyone can, at very little cost to themselves, or even your GUV, should your largesse extend that far.

And instead of having all of the above restrictions, all a premises needs are a couple of COVID KILLAH! operatives/nurses spraying everyone entering and leaving the premises.

No masks, no screens, no social distancing.

You could even open their borders by applying the H2O2 nebulising treatment to anyone and everyone entering on every route.

A simple 30 second procedure which makes everyone safe.

But surely this must be illegal and kept secret BIKOZ BIG PHARMA, BIG MED AND BIG BILL GATES ain't gonna make no money 'saving' our Planet?

All these opportunistic producers are making a fortune selling sterilising handwash (like they use in the operating theatres - so it must work, right?) But hey - isn't that from where MRSA (the flesh-eating, antibiotic-resistant superbug) emanates?

If this handwash works how come it doesn't kill MRSA.

This is not a question as I shall tell you why -

*BIKOZ it only kills 99.99% of all known bacteria

It doesn't even kill 100% of known bacteria

I've seen the accumulative results of using 99.99% effective disinfectant. In my rental apartment I had these two feral dogs of tenants who were using Dettol.

The place stank, worse than a garbage dump.

I asked what they were using, They showed me Dettol

I told them to use bleach.

They did.

The next time I entered, the offensive smell had gone and the place smelt clean.

What do you think that tells you about 'disinfectant' that only kills 99.99% of all known germs?????

Only two solutions kill ALL BACTERIA, known and unknown,

0.5% solution of common household bleach (50ml in 1L)

0.5% solution of HyDrogen peroxide (H2O2)

Bleach is much more stable and much cheaper

Both these kill ALL BACTERIA KNOWN AND UNKNOWN IN 60 SECONDS so does ethyl alcohol but it is too expensive and dangerous and makes people blind who drink it.

And, according to a restaurant owning acquaintance, both bleach and H2O2 usage have been banned by your GUV, thereby creating yet another MRSA clone, flesh eating, antibiotic resistant, monster bacteria.

But then opportunistic covid product hustlers would fall by the wayside and probably never vote for you again.

Yet another dilemma.

(The ever-populist former presidente of my local council here was lobbied to reduce the heights of the newly installed speed bumps on the street passing the local kindergarten, because the plutocats couldn't drive at their chosen speed - otherwise they wouldn't vote for him next time.)

Hey! Democracy at work, yet again. However, I digress.

Just how obvious are you all gonna look when the proverbial shit and denials hit the fan and the population insurrects?

The real bottom line here is the prospect of a bunch of Chinese/russian /youhessofhay vulture capitalists buying your parliament for less than one cent on the euro.

You don't believe me?

You are old enough to be able to read the runes without assistance.

Or do you think your parliament will continue this conspiratorial, Covid charade so that all your rich and privileged chums become more rich and privileged, until the EU bailout runs out?

I've written to various prime ministers and newspapers offering my services, prepared to go where their cowardly doctors (and editors) wouldn't.

Their silent responses have been overwhelming.

It would appear that the financially induced, alimentary tract inserted, solid gold, corporate elbows appear to have been collectively inserted and doing a marvelous job.

The bottom line being; live in fear now then collect your pay-off later (Jam tomorrow - maybe)

Well you are the ones who have to live with yourselves. Do you believe in KARMA.

It would restore a lot of the country's belief in democracy for you and your team to do the right thing by your voting, working, tax paying public and their dependants you got the tools to keep you stay informed and safe - so use them to the best of your abilities

All the best in these, 'enlightened' times
