

Dear Missy Viner (just who do you really think you deluding - apart from yo'sef'),

(After your editor betrayed his source to UKGUV, sometime in the eighties, I swore I would never darken the pages of your treacherous organ again. Well, in such lean editorial times, so much for swearing.)

This time there is a literal, litany of laziness wot passes for factoids, but, in reality, is froth comment and opinion.

It doesn't really matter which day, on a good day these factoid/comments outnumber 'news items ' by at least two to one.

This makes for tiresome viewing, indicating that your contributors can't be arsed to, not even get out more, or just to do some actual-factual web searching, in order to unearth something other than others' opinions and factoids.

You can't even be arsed to even spellcheck your sub-heads - what pressure youse must be under.

Just look at this regurgitated Bill&Melinda fechin lies you pass of as a headline <https://www.theguardian.com/global-development/2020/oct/27/old-and-unsafe-cars-sent-to-developing-world-fuelling-air-pollution-report-finds>

I bet you don't even read this crap before regurgitating it!

It all points to your investments in CAFU industrial meat production? (52% of all global warming emissions - and rising)

I apologise for comparing you to these politically appointed, lying puppets in the CDC & the WHO.

But that is the level to which you are gravitating.

God, I would hate to share a living space, or even the air that you and your frackin, uber-conscientious, hypocritical, devious traitors to humanity, breathe.

Besides that, your back office team must be all that, and more.

Maybe you should pass the buck onto your misguided management team.

In today's data driven world, even I would be able to clock the data that payments and their associated addresses raised.

Your lazy backroom scabs bombard every paying reader incessantly with sanctimonious pleas for more.

If Cambridge Analytica can get rich covertly harvesting it, I think your backroom boys could try a leg and achieve one tenth of a result - overtly. However, perhaps hopefully, raising a flag to your sanctimonious, irritating begging, we can now move on to the difference between the way the Chinese GUV control information rolling through their press and the way you control yours?

Apart from their active suppression and your passive complicit suppression, there is none!

Which brings me to the financially induced, alimentary inserted, solid gold, corporate elbows club of which you and your organ are doing sterling impressions of being fully, recipient members.

Much like some of our Planet's guvs, a selection of which I contacted with actual-factual - not on Google's radar - research, none of which has yet to appear on any of your guv-sycophantic pages.

Why do you think that informed, dissenting voices are already labeling this, the conspiracy virus?

Because one plus one ain't making two, no more.

Because these guys are joining the dots and what they are getting is the face of one monster conspiracy.

AND NONE OF WHICH SEEMS TO BE REACHING OR EVEN REGISTERING WITH YOU AND YOUR COVID AWARE TEAM!

The following is just one of a selection of emails I have circulated to, what I erroneously believed to be, receptive guvs.

Their silent responses were overwhelming.

Presumably they were too busy burnishing their sold gold elbow implants.

Here is the verbose response (it's attachment EU Health director Reply) I received from the over-achieving golden elbow recipient EU health director. To save you wasting time wading through his verbage, just note his dismissal of my peer reviewed, medical papers by authoritative, practicing, medical sources. by his authoritative reliable sources. It's so easily done when you got deh cred.

The following was the post I sent to Ursula von der Leyen.

Dear Madame Presidente

Boy, is your EU in a mess so - LISTEN UP!

However, before I commence berating your pandemic mismanagement, first I must commend you on your transparent accessibility.

If only other presidentes/ prime ministers were so acessible.

As you might imagine from my comments so far I am of the confirmed opinion that there are enough well-placed persons who are party to this conspiracy virus and want to keep it that way.

So, either you are part of the select group of recipients of the financially induced, alimentary tract implanted, solid gold, corporate elbow, or you are not.

You are busy dealing with Bobo the UK clown. so I'll be as brief as I can.

I am not sure you have any real idea what this covid conspiracy is doing to your EU population.

Apart from killing them, your 'control' methods are debillitating businesses, isolating families, in fact doing as good a job as ICE is doing on the Mexican border.

Remember the movie TOTAL RECALL - if not then watch it.

And check out the <https://www.prisonplanet.com/> and <http://tv.infowars.com/> websites.

It is run by a motormouthed maniac by the name of Alex Jones.

A lot of what he claims is either the truth, or close to it.

But he is also a maniac. (correction - I hadn't looked at it for at least 10 years - boy has it changed)

It might be disconcerting for you to see all your countries leaders having no idea what they are doing to control an out-of-control monster pandemic, or it might not.

It's not all their fault.

They are being misguided by self-interested forces in the guise of the CDC and the WHO, both of which are the glove puppets of Big PHARM, BIG MED & 'PHYLANTHROPIC' BIG BILL GATES

I have been tracking 'fake nooz' - the stuff that the donald and his gang of liars and thieves don't want people thinking about, or even knowing.

Please study the links thoroughly as well as the attachments.

you will learn a lot about surviving this conspiracy virus, keeping your countries open and their economies functioning if you pay attention and forget what disinformation the CDC and WHO are filling your heads with.

In one of the links you will hear testimony from Dr Brownstein, in which he is threatened with having his med licence revoked by the CDC if he does not withdraw his claims that his treatment can cure/stop/kill covid.

Because the CDC know there is no cure - confident they are not.

Funny old country the youessofhay - land of the free - I believe they claim.

I have also condensed the H2O2 treatment into to a simple, step-by-step procedure for the non-medically trained/ hygiene unaware.

It is entitled Kovid killah!

How does that old saw go?

Cometh the hour, cometh the man or perhaps in your case it might be the reverse

So ask yourself if are you part of the old establishment line of maleable incompetents, liars and crooks masquerading as political saviours, the like of which I have observed for all of my fifty years of political awareness.

or are you indeed a watershed person with balls enough to do the right thing by your people and make The Bobo and The Donald look like the pathetic, lying clowns they don't need to aspire to be?

And if you are the latter are you going to explain to the business/retail/services world that it is not incumbent upon them to ensure the safety of those working or entering their premises, by them having to shell out for disinfectant, handwash, safety curtains, social distancing enforcers then limiting access to their premises.

This isn't Russia or China or even the youessofhay!

*Instead it is incumbent on everyone to ensure that they are Covid free.
By using the COVID KILLAH procedure everyone can
And instead of having all of the above restrictions, all a premises needs are a couple of COVID KILLAH operatives spraying everyone entering and leaving the premises.*

No masks, no screens, no social distancing.

You could even open your borders by applying the H2O2 nebulising treatment to anyone and everone entering on every route.

A simple 30 second procedure which makes everyone safe.

But surely this must be illegal and kept secret BIKOZ BIG PHARMA, BIG MED AND BIG BILL GATES ain't gonna make no money on it.

*In addition to this, all these producers making a fortune selling sterile handwash (like they use in the operating theatres - so it must work, right?)
But hey - isn't that from where MRSA (the flesh-eating, antibiotic-resistant superbug) emanates?*

If this handwash works how come it doesn't kill MRSA?

This is not a question you need to answer, as I shall tell you why.

*BIKOZ it only kills 99.99% of all known bacteria

It doesn't even kill 100% of known bacteria

Only two solutions kill ALL BACTERIA, known and unknown, in miniscule concentrations

0.5% solution of common household bleach

0.5% solution of HyDrogen peroxide

Bleach is much more stable and much cheaper

*Both these kill ALL BACTERIA KNOWN AND UNKNOWN IN 60 SECONDS
so does ethyl alcohol but it is too expensive and dangerous and makes people blind who drink it.*

*However, I was advised by a restaurant owning friend this week, that the use of bleach and H2O2 were prohibited.

Funny old world, is it not?

Then opportunistic, covid product hustlers would fall by the wayside and possibly never vote for you.

Yet another dilemma. What to do?

(The ever-populist former presidente of my local council here was lobbied to reduce the heights of the speed bumps on the street passing the local kindergarten, because the plutocats couldn't drive at their chosen speed - otherwise they wouldn't vote for him next time.)

Hey! Democracy at work, yet again. However, I digress.

Or will you continue this conspiratorial, Covid charade so that all your rich and privileged chums become even more rich and privileged?

Don't tell me. I do not want to be privy to your innermost dilemmas. What to do, indeed?

I've written to various prime ministers offering my services, prepared to go where their cowardly doctors wouldn't.

Their silent responses have been overwhelming.

It would appear that the financially induced, alimentary tract inserted, solid gold corporate elbows appear to have been collectively inserted and doing a marvelous job.

The bottom line being; live in fear now then collect their pay-off later (Jam tomorrow - maybe)

Well you and they are the ones who have to live with yourselves.

It would restore a lot of confidence in democracy for you to do the right thing by your tax-paying public and their dependants.

The real bottom line here is the prospect of a bunch of Chinese/russian /youhessofhay vulture capitalists buying your parliament for one cent on the euro, or even less.

You don't believe me? This is a dangerous game of chicken in which you are all participating.

You are old enough to be able to read the runes.

Anyhoo, get in touch if you want more.

you got the tools to allow your people to stay informed and safe - so use them to the limit of your abilities

All the best

The good doc always came across as a thin-skinned, hard-sell charlatan with expensive remedies.

However this covid crisis has seen him come good.

Just think what you could do for humanity by revealing these manipulative, pathologically avaricious billionaires for what they truly are.

Just think what it would do for your circulation figures if someone with your stature stuck it to these liars.

So, it really is shit, or get off the pot time.

Or you could just sit on your golden elbow and try living with yourself.

You'll need more than luck with that.

Thanks for your time
